Federico Luger is pleased to present Waiting For The Unknown 2016, the first solo show in Italy by Hungarian artist Attila Szücs. The exhibition features a selection of new paintings, oil on canvas, realized in the past two years. Women, children, family subjects are captured in key moments, images able to convey an extraordinary emotional charge.

A fascinating dialog between dreams and memories.

Attila Szücs was born in Miskolc, Hungary and currently lives and works in Budapest. He is one of the leading painters of his generation in Hungary. His work has been shown in numerous solo and group exhibitions (KW Institute for Contemporary Art, Berlin; Ludwig Museum, Budapest; Künstlerhaus Bethanien, Berlin; Tylers Museum, Haarlem, The Netherlands).

His works are also held in permanent collections such as Neue Galerie am Landesmuseum Joanneum in Graz (Austria), Hungarian National Gallery, Ludwig Museum in Budapest, Frissiras Museum in Athens. He is currently included in the group exhibition The Nude in London's S/2 Gallery. He is preparing a solo show at the Ludwig Museum in Budapest that will open on December 2016.
